Alumni-Active get-together in December

We are excited to invite you all to our get-together for MiB International current actives and alumnis! On the 8th of December we will pamper you away with tasty food and program that will recharge your batteries in the middle of the dark season. :)

Office wants to thank you for your amazing contribution for the project that we are enabling together <3. Registration is opening soon, but save the date already to your calendar!

DE&I event calls for volunteers

Our second diversity, equity and inclusion (DE&I) event is here! The topic is recruitment of international talents and the language is English. We are proud to announce that this event will take place on 24th November in Maria01, Helsinki together with City of Helsinki's Spouse program.

Our key note speaker is Riikka Pakarinen from the Finnish start-up community. In addition, bigger companies will share their best practices about recruiting international talents and managing multicultural teams. Participants will also get to network with the company representatives, and get boost for their job hunt from a CV clinic.

We hope to get as many of you as possible engaged in organizing the event. We are looking for:

- Help for arrangements at the site and welcoming people
- Facilitators to the site
- Help for social media posts and other communications.

A host and a photographer already volunteered from the active community. Thank you!
Send an email with an idea for possible help: tuovi.bresnahan@mib.fi.

Apply for MiB skill badge for organising events

MiB has launched digital skill badges that can be added to your CV or LinkedIn. We know that MiB's active work enhances skills and we want people to be able to showcase it.

As a first step, you can look into a LinkedIn badge for organising events. The requirements for applying for this badge are abilities to:

- conceive, plan and implement an event (which enhances the professional competence or the well-being of mothers)
- organise the event from start to finish
- act as the person in charge of the event team
- contact the speaker, reserve the venue, make a budget, handle the marketing and registration of the event
- collect feedback and take care of the after-marketing of the event
- take into account and facilitate the networking between event participants
- organise an event in which mothers can participate with their children.

Apply for a skill badge

We are happy to notice that many of you are interested in validating your work as an active. :) Feel free to send any questions to us: tuovi.bresnahan@mib.fi , viivi@mib.fi .

Call for funding for events in 2022

MiB's event budget for 2022 is still partially unused. We now have a special internal funding call open for teams interested in organizing events, networking activities and other forms of competence development for MiB members only before the end of the year.

Teams and local chapters can apply for funding for the activities mentioned above. The funding range is 500-1500 €, and the funds must be used before the end of December.

The funding can be applied between 13.–26.10.2022 and used for e.g. venue rent or a speaker (we do not normally pay speakers, so this could be an interesting opportunity to have someone with a higher profile).

If you would like to know more, please contact viivi@mib.fi.
